In Memory
of
Hon. A. J. Loyd

Mr. Farrar offered the following resolution:

Died, January 3, 1926, at his home in Ellis county, Capt. Andrew Jackson Loyd, a member of the Twenty-sixth Legislature.

Captain Loyd was a true product of the South, his father was an aide to General Jackson at the battle of New Orleans, and a grand uncle on his maternal side was General Edward Burleson, immortal hero of the Texas Revolution.

He had lived in Ellis county since 1849, and rendered various and distinguished service to his county. In early life he was a pioneer school teacher, and during the years was justice of the peace, county commissioner, and a member of the Legislature of Ellis county. He followed the flag of the Confederacy from its rise to its fall, and though nearly eighty years old was chairman of the Liberty Loan Committee of his home town during the World War.

As a member of the Legislature he was joint author of the general stock law, which in that day was a law of great importance in civic conservation.

During all his long and useful life he was a leader in the things worth while in his community, and in his passing a patriot has gone to a rich reward.

Therefore, be it resolved, That in the death of Captain A. J. Loyd Texas mourns the loss of a useful patriotic citizen, and we extend to his family and friends our sincere sympathy and condolence.

That this resolution be printed in the Journal and a copy be sent to the widow of the deceased, Mrs. Annie Loyd, Italy, Texas, by the Chief Clerk, and to the Italy News-Herald, Italy, Texas, and that when we adjourn today it be in his honor.

FARRAR, STOUT,
BEAN, VEATCH, FIELDS.

The resolution was read second time and was adopted by a rising vote.

In Memory
of
Mrs. Rebecca J. Fisher

Mr. Smith of Travis offered the following resolution:

On March 21, 1926, in the city of Austin, the eventful and useful life of Mrs. Rebecca J. Fisher came peacefully to its close.

Ninety-two years out of the ninety-five of her life were passed in Texas. In common with all the members of her family she endured dire suffering and hardships, but her love of and devotion to Texas never lessened or wavered.

She was acclaimed as "Mother Fisher," and was one of that devotedly patriotic guild "The Daughters of the Republic."

She nobly typified Texas womanhood according to the exalted standard it has ever maintained, and when that is said, praise has reached its limit. Her name is woven into the warp and woof of Texas history in imperishable colors, and feeling that it is meet and fit that the House of Representatives of Texas should tender that tribute to her memory which it so richly deserves, we move the adoption of this resolution, and that it be entered on the Journal of the House today, and that a copy be transmitted to some surviving member of the family of the noble woman.

SMITH of Travis,
KITTRELL, FLY, SINKS, FIELDS,
ACKER,
DURHAM.

The resolution was read second time and was adopted by a rising vote.
